Ÿ. Let us pray that the whole day may be perfect, holy, peaceful and sinless, and let us commend ourselves and one another and our whole life to Christ our God.

R̄. To you, O Lord.

Ÿ. Almighty God, you have given us grace with one accord to make our common supplications to you, † and have promised that when two or three are gathered together in your name you will grant their requests: * fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of your servants as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. For you are gracious, O God, lover of all, and we give glory to you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

R̄. Amen.
